ST. PATRICK'S DAY AND PROMOTION ARE CELEBRATED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Mar. 19. —Lieut. Jens E. Stedje of the 4th Cavalry on Saturday of last week received his official notification from the war department of his promotion to captain and Tuesday night proceeded, with the assistance of the band, the officers and ladies of the 4th Cavalry and numerous other friends in the garrison, to celebrate in lively style.

The rooms of the 4th Cavalry club were thrown open and at 8:30 p. m. the band started with a medley of Irish reels and jigs appropriate for the day which celebrates the feast of St. Patrick. An ample and joyous punch graced the occasion and whether from its inspiring flavor or the compelling strains of Irish music, the guests for the time being abandoned the tango and hesitation waltz and under the able leadership of Capt. John O'Shea, adjutant 4th Cavalry, danced reels, hornpipes, jigs, flings, etc., until the band was exhausted. At 11 p. m. salad and coffee were served, after which dancing continued until midnight.

Capt. Stedje is one of the old 4th Cavalry men, having served 12 years in the regiment, and enjoys great popularity with the entire regiment.

Few officers in the army can show a more interesting career than Capt. Stedje. Twenty years ago he took the oath of enlistment as a private in the cavalry branch of the service of the United States. Notwithstanding his handicap of being an almost complete stranger to the English language, his rise was rapid and continuous until his commission as an officer of volunteers in 1899. In 1901 he was commissioned 2d lieutenant in the 15th Cavalry of the regular army and in 1903 1st lieutenant in the 4th Cavalry. Capt. Stedje is one of the army's crack shots, being a master of both the rifle and the revolver. He has won all of the service medals.

His career with the fighting troops, like that of many other faithful officers of the regular army, has been filled with exciting and thrilling experiences.

At the last really great fight of our troops in the Philippines at Mt. Dalo in the island of Jolo, in which there were over 80 men of our forces killed or wounded and in which the Moros lost about 200, it fell to the lot of Capt. Stedje to command a part of the assaulting force.

His promotion takes Capt. Stedje to the 13th Cavalry, now serving on the troubled Mexican border, where his friends in the 4th Cavalry know he will give that good account of himself to which his 12 years of service in the 4th testifies.

URIC ACID SOLVENT

50 Cent Bottle (32 Doses) FREE

Just because you start the day worried and tired, stiff legs and aches and muscles, an aching head, burning and bearing-down pains in the back—worn out before the day begins, do not think you have to stay in that condition.

Be strong, well and vigorous, with no more pain from stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic suffering, aching back or kidney disease. For any form of bladder trouble or weakness, its action is really wonderful. Those sufferers who are in and out of bed half a dozen times a night will appreciate the rest, comfort and strength this treatment gives.

To prove the Williams Treatment conquers kidney and bladder diseases, rheumatism and all uric acid troubles, no matter how chronic or stubborn, if you have never used the Williams Treatment, we will give you 50c bottle (32 doses) free if you will cut out this notice and send it with your name and address, with 10c to help pay distribution expenses, to The Dr. D. A. Williams Company, Dept. 3569 P. O. Bldg., East Hampton, Conn. Send at once and you will receive by parcel post a regular 50c bottle, without charge and without incurring any obligations. AT THE THEATERS

BIJOU THEATER

"The Goddess of Oahu" is the title of a hilarious new musical comedy which will serve as a vehicle for the appearance of all the principals in the cast of the Spaulding Musical Comedy Company at the Bijou theater this evening and continuing through the week.

Buck Theall has painted a set of scenery in keeping with the production. The semblance of a plot is laid in the Hawaiian islands and the center of action has been brought with it in the distance of old Diamond Head. Spaulding takes the part of a wandering negro minstrel. "The Goddess of Oahu" affords splendid opportunity for the presentation of pleasing dancing and singing specialties. "Pango Isle" is the opening chorus, and is a catchy air. Spaulding will lead in "Little Miss Muffet," a new song. Miss Andelle will appear in "Somebody's Coming to My House." She is followed by Palsley Noon, "I Used to Sigh for the Silvery Moon." Margaret De Von and the girls will entertain in a song hit, "Don't Go Near the Water, Daughter." "Way Down, South" will be a feature participated in by the De Von sisters. Hattie De Von is down for two numbers on the program, her first selection being "Under the Cotton Moon," followed with "When Uncle Joe Plays Ragtime on the Banjo."

A chorus girls' contest will serve as an added attraction for Friday evening.

EMPIRE THEATER

Staged with an excellent cast, clear photography and telling an interesting story where a good deal of the atmosphere has been brought out through clever acting, the feature film offered at the Empire theater this afternoon and evening, entitled "A Woman's Heart" is pronounced a picture above the average.

A one-reel Indian drama is told in "The Ranchero's Revenge," a portion of the scene being laid in Mexico, where intrigue and revolution are now rampant.

The program for today also includes "The Outlaw's Love," a cowboy selection by a well known western producing company.

The comic side of the bill is ably presented in "The Delayed Proposal." Friday afternoon and evening will see the presentation of a two-reel special, "The Weaker Mind." This production, besides along the line from comedy to drama. The weekly resume of world wide happenings will be flashed across the screen at both performances.

POPULAR THEATER

Leading feature film at the Popular today and tomorrow (matinee and evening) is entitled "The Princess of Lorraine," a story of feudal days, with beautiful settings, and excellently acted. In order to augment the power of two principalities, a marriage between the heir and heiress of respective thrones was arranged by their royal fathers. The princess seriously objected, as she maintained that she would marry for love alone. However, after having had her freedom restrained as she would not consent to her father's wishes, she escapes and unknowingly meets the prince to whom she was to be betrothed. He was traveling incognito as a peasant and was also unaware of the identity of the young woman.

He wishes to make her his wife, and she consents; however, her father learns of her whereabouts and induces her to leave her peasant lover to return to the castle. The finale is, of course, one of great rejoicing and mutual satisfaction when the prince and princess are brought to the altar and find that their parents' choice was unconsciously also their own.

In connection with this two-reel drama, the usual strong program of interesting and amusing pictures will be shown.

The gigantic palace of machinery is completed, the palace of education is 75 per cent finished, and 27 of the eight exhibit palaces in the main group have passed the 50 per cent mark in point of completion, according to the latest report of building progress issued by Harris D. H. Connick, director of works of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Besides the palace of machinery, four of the main exhibit palaces are 75 per cent or more completed, and four others have passed the 50 per cent mark. It is estimated that the palace of education will be finished during February and that the palaces of mines and metallurgy, varied industries and agriculture will be completed during March.

CALIFORNIANS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY MERCHANTS

That the California Foreign Trade Commission, composed of Fred J. Churchill, secretary of the board of public works of San Francisco and representative of that city's administration; A. C. Rulofson, steel and iron merchant and representative of the Home Industry League of California, and Miss Harriet B. Perkins, newspaper and magazine writer and representative of the woman's societies and clubs of California, will visit Honolulu early next month, enroute to the Orient, was the gist of a communication received recently by and read at the meeting of the Merchants' Association yesterday afternoon.

The communication points out that the party left San Francisco March 5 on the Mongolia, but from the fact that the party have not as yet arrived here, it was the opinion of the meeting that, for some reason, the trip has been postponed. The committee believes that the party will arrive on the next Mongolia, and voted to entertain the visitors at luncheon as well as on a sight seeing tour of the city.

In part, the communication, written by William Hume, manager of the foreign trade department of the Daily Journal of Commerce, says:

"The commission has been chosen by the business men of California, under the leadership of the Daily Journal of Commerce, to visit the various important centers across the Pacific, with the object of cultivating such acquaintances and to establish such relations of friendship and good will as may help to build up our trade with the Orient, to the mutual benefit of California and of the countries to be visited.

"With the completion of the Panama canal and with a new tariff law in effect in the United States, it seems to be an opportune time to meet and discuss the best methods to be adopted in order to make our relations closer and more binding. The commission desires also to study the commercial and industrial features of each community visited, and would feel obliged if it could obtain your assistance in aiding it to secure all the information which would be helpful in its work. This day set for the commission to arrive in your city is, of course, approximate, and we will take the liberty of advising you later by wire of the day on which the commission definitely will reach Honolulu."

DRUG GOODS AS CHEAP HERE AS IN STATES

A look at the windows of the Hollister Drug Co. should convince the most skeptical that the public is not "held up" here, at least as far as drugs and sundries are concerned. This popular drug store is showing what 25 cents will buy in Honolulu. The large assortment of goods displayed includes many useful household and toilet articles as well as medicines and drug sundries.—advertisement.

A German authority describes as illuminating projectile of a new type manufactured by Krupp. The projectile, built like a shrapnel, contains a number of layers of flame bulbs in a black-powder matrix separated by thin annular partitions. A black-powder fuse runs through the center of the projectile like a core. The base of the projectile is filled with six "feathers" made of thin metal, which are held in place, folded up against the projectile, when it is fired. When the projectile reaches the highest point in its trajectory an automatic arrangement releases the "feathers" at the base, arresting its flight and causing it to float in the air point downward. At this moment the first layer of flame bulbs is thrown out. The other layers are thrown out successively, lighting up the field.—The American Machinist.
